CFSP Best Practices (see membership brochure and back of this form): I have thoroughly reviewed the CFSP Best Practices. I am in compliance with them and agree to continue to abide by them at all times. I understand that my membership may be terminated if my organization violates the CFSP Best Practices. Information about CFSP Dues : Payments to CFSP are not tax deductible as charitable contributions for federal income tax purposes. While a portion of your dues may be deducted as an ordinary and necessary business expense, CFSP dues are not deductible as a business expense to the extent that CFSP engages in lobbying. The projected nondeductible portion of dues for 2012 is 59%. Additionally, and unless you specify an alternate amount, we will direct 7.5% of your dues to the CFSP PAC fund. All PAC contributions are voluntary and are not tax deductible. In total, up to 69% of your dues may not be tax deductible. Check with your CPA to determine the portion of your dues expense that can be considered tax deductible.
